WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.
The President has approved the bill for the payment of bounty to the heirs of soldiers.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.
The Herald's special states that it is not believed a two-thirds vote against the President is to be had in the Senate. That is to say, he is to be defeated in the Senate by a vote of 37 to 36. The House will adjourn while he is in New York. He would advise settlement by arbitration in the manner proposed by the Senate.

Moore Fessenden, Trumbull and other R-Publicans, who form the dam of the sleek and sly, Stanton, have entered that individual to resign, and on the other side Senator Howard, Mr.

B. F. Butler, Mr. Boutwell, other Jacobins, insist on his keeping his place. There are rumors that he will resign, but they are not confirmed.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 28.
The market here is quiet at the following closing quotations, viz:

Stocks and Bond Discrepancy.

Exchange was in fair request to-day, and offerings were more readily taken. The buying rates were about the same as yesterday, buying at ½ to 10¢ off and selling at par.

In Government bonds there is little doing for investment, and holders have considered less anxiety to sell and invest in securities less liable to be affected by Congressional legislation.

The Philadelphia Ledger says there is a great awakening of confidence in Government securities. Holders of all classes of bonds, residing in the city, are alarmed at the somewhat uncertain reports from the national capital.

The Times says the American Minister is to be called in to report on the discrepancy between the terms demanded by the two nations.

He is to submit to the terms demanded by Mr. Schroeder in relation to security for the loan. Still, he has no preference over all others who have applied.

LONDON, Feb. 28.

A meeting on Tuesday evening, Jan. 18, broke strongly in favor of the Government policy and down on the administration. Mr. Boutwell's duty of the estimation of friendly relations with them. If the British Government and English press are really doing their best to subdue the terms demanded by Mr. Schroeder in relation to security for the loan. Still, he has no preference over all others who have applied.
